

NATHALIA JUSTO

nathaliajusto.com

Bowdoin College
Government and Legal Studies Department
9800 College Station
Brunswick, ME 04011
n.justo@bowdoin.edu
(224) 789-6278

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Ethics and international affairs; global politics of citizenship; international law and migration; postcolonialism and empire in global politics; human rights; climate crisis; international organizations; international political economy; qualitative and interpretive methodologies.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Bowdoin College

Visiting Assistant Professor (2023-2024)

Northwestern University

Lecturer (2022-2023)

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. Northwestern University, Political Science July 2023
Fields: International Relations and Political Theory
Dissertation: The Global Politics of Citizenship: Producing and Protecting the “Deserving” Subject
Committee: Elizabeth Shakman Hurd (Chair), Ian Hurd, Mary Dietz, Naeem Inayatullah
- M.A. PUC-Rio, International Relations Sep 2012
Thesis: The International Regime for the Protection of Stateless Peoples in two moments: contributions to an analysis on the relationship between statelessness, citizenship, and the international order.
- B.A. Sao Paulo State University, International Relations Dec 2008
Senior Thesis Title: Human Trafficking, values, and prostitution.

HONORS AND AWARDS

Buffett Global Impacts Fellowship, Northwestern University	2020-2021
Exchange Program at the École Normale Supérieure (ENS) – France	2019-2020
SSRC/Northwestern - Dissertation Development Program	2018
The New School’s Institute for Critical Social Inquiry (ICSI) fellowship	2018
Brazilian Council for Scientific and Technological Development Fellow	2010-2012
Primeiro Prêmio Libertas - Enfrentamento ao Tráfico de Pessoas, 3rd place UNCCD, WTO, Brazilian Ministry of Justice	2008

PUBLICATIONS

Book review

“A Conversation about the Politics of Rights within Rights as Weapons” In Book Symposium: A Discussion on Clifford Bob’s Rights as Weapons. Ethics and International Affairs.

Public Scholarship

“Lessons learned from ‘Encanto’: Oscar winner for Best Animated Feature teaches us about flaws of U.S. immigration policy,” Northwestern Now, 03/28/2022

“Granting Temporary Protected Status to Ukrainians Is a Start, but It’s Not Enough,” Chicago Tribune, 03/17/22

“Feeding Agrarian Reform with Food Donations: a Covid-19 Story from Brazil” (2020). Living with Plagues: New Narratives for a World in Distress Impressions and Reflections.

Book Chapter

Tráfico de pessoas: questão das relações internacionais. In: Secretaria Nacional de Justiça. (Org.). I Prêmio Libertas: enfrentamento ao tráfico de pessoas. Brasília: BDJur- Biblioteca Digital Jurídica, 2010, p. 263-287.

WORK IN-PROGRESS

“Above politics: the construction of human rights in the negotiation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.”

“Deservingness and the international: a historical account of the differentiation of the stateless and the refugee in international law.”

“Limits of deservingness and law: a TPS story.”

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Bowdoin College, Instructor of Record

- Introduction to International Relations (Fall 2023) – Government and Legal Studies Department Designed an introductory-level undergraduate lecture and seminar course for 50 students. Syllabus is available upon request.
- Human Rights (and Wrongs): the International Politics of Human Rights (Fall 2023) – Government and Legal Studies Department
Designed a new introductory/intermediate-level undergraduate lecture and seminar course on human rights for 35 students. Syllabus is available upon request.

Northwestern University, Instructor of Record

- International Relations Theory (Fall 2022) – Political Science Department
Designed and taught an advanced-level undergraduate seminar course on international relations theory. Established learning objectives, wrote syllabus and assignments, planned 80-minute classes and led them twice a week, held weekly office hours, and graded 20 students. Evaluations are available upon request.
- Introduction to International Relations (Spring 2023) – School of Professional Studies
Designed an introductory-level undergraduate seminar course on international relations. Established learning objectives, wrote syllabus and assignments, planned 180-minute classes and led them once a week, and graded 6 students. Evaluations are available upon request.

Northwestern University, Teaching Assistant

- Foreign Aid and US Foreign Policy (Spring 2022)
Conducted writing workshops on book reviews and policy papers, held office hours and graded for approximately 20 students.
- International Political Economy (Winter 2019)
Planned and led weekly 50-minute seminars for two discussion sections of the lecture course, held weekly office hours, and graded for approximately 30 students.

- Politics of Religious Diversity (Fall 2018)
Conducted in-class active learning activities, held weekly office hours, and graded for approximately 30 students.
- Politics of the Middle East (Spring 2018, Winter 2017)
Planned and led weekly 50-minute seminars for two discussion sections of the lecture course, guided students through completing a research paper assignment, held weekly office hours, and graded for approximately 30 students.
- Introduction to International Relations (Spring 2019, Winter 2018, Spring 2017)
Planned and led weekly 50-minute seminars for two discussion sections of the lecture course, held weekly office hours, and graded for approximately 30 students.
- Introduction to Law in the Political Arena (Fall 2017, Fall 2021)
Guest lecturer on US Immigration Policy. Planned and led weekly 50-minute seminars for two discussion sections of the lecture course, assisted with mock trial assignments, held weekly office hours, and graded for approximately 30 students.
- National Security (Fall 2016)
Guest lecturer on US War on Drugs and Foreign Policy in Latin America. Planned and led weekly 50-minute seminars for two discussion sections of the lecture course, held weekly office hours, and graded for approximately 30 students.

Northwestern University/Sciences Po/Paris Sorbonne Nouvelle Program in Art, Literature, and Contemporary European Thought (France), Teaching Assistant

- French Politics, Society, and Culture (Fall 2019)
Planned and led weekly 50-minute seminars for two discussion sections of the lecture course and graded for approximately 35 students.

PUC-Rio (Brazil), Teaching Assistant

- International Relations Theory (2011)
Guest instructor and graded for approximately 40 students.

INVITED TALKS

University of Washington at Tacoma, April 2023

Deservingness and Law: The Global Politics of Morality

William & Mary, March 2023

Deservingness & Race: Teaching International Relations

Francis Marion University, February 2023

(Un)deserving political subjects: the refugee and the stateless in international law

Claremont McKenna, October 2022

The limits of deservingness and law: a TPS story

PRESENTATIONS AND WORKSHOPS

"The limits of deservingness to address limits in law: a TPS story" in APSA 2022, September 2022.

"Deservingness and the international: a historical account of the differentiation of the stateless and the refugee in international law" in Millennium 2021 Conference (Re)Writing the International: Interrogating Histories, Imagining Futurities, October 2021.

"Between morality and responsibility: the limits of human rights and the limits of the human" in ISA Human Rights & Foreign Policy 2021, June 2021 and APSA, October 2021.

"The limits of deservingness to address limits in law: a TPS story" in CRS & CERLAC 2021 Virtual Student Conference Recognition, Agency, and Deservingness: (Re)framing Refugee, Black, and Indigenous Movements, February 2021.

"Climate change, deservingness, and the limits in international law" in ISA Northeast Annual Conference 2020 - Transnationalism in World Politics: Beyond Methodological Nationalism in International Studies, November 2020.

"(Un)deserving Political Subjects: Entanglements and Detachments and the Limits of International Law" in Millennium: Journal of International Relations. 2020 Online Conference - Entanglements and Detachments in Global Politics, October 2020.

"(Un)deserving Political Subjects: Hierarchies of Rights and the Limits of International Law" in ISA-West, September 2020.

"The morality of migration: the national and its others in the United Nations (1945 - 1961)" at the conference Walls and Bridges: Migration and Its Histories, Nicholas D. Chabraja Center for Historical Studies, Northwestern University, April 2019.

1st New School Political Theory workshop in New York - "Autobiographies as political theory: self-healing and modern subjectivity in Mill and Nietzsche," March 2020.

NU International Relations workshop - "The Brazilian State as Missionary: Differentiating Culture from Religion to Save Race," November 2018.

New School's Institute for Critical Social Inquiry (ICSI) – The Relevance of Hannah Arendt - "Storytelling and statelessness: an exploration of the human limit in the writings of Hannah Arendt," June 2018.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Teaching Certificate Program

Northwestern's Searle Center for Advancing Learning and Teaching, 2018-2019
Yearlong combined seminars, workshops, mentoring, and discipline-specific discussions on learning goals, assessments, and evaluation. Emphasis on critical pedagogies and active learning.

Climate Justice Institute Maroon University Summer School Social Justice Initiative – the University of Illinois at Chicago July 26-28, 2021

New School's Institute for Critical Social Inquiry (ICSI) The Relevance of Hannah Arendt, Summer 2018

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Symposium Co-Organizer

Global "Religion": Invention, Translation, Critique, 2022.

Study Group Co-Organizer

Interpretive Methods, Summer 2020.

Student Organization Co-Organizer

Weekly discussions about race and social justice in the Graduate Christian Fellowship and Adventist Christian Fellowships, Winter 2018, Spring 2019, and Summer 2020.

Peer-Reviewed Articles for:

- Refugee Review Journal of the ESPMI Network.

LANGUAGES

Portuguese: Native Language

English: Fluent

French and Spanish: Advanced Listener and Reading; Intermediate Speaker and Writing

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

Senior Executive Assistant and Project Coordinator, São Paulo State University (2012 – 2015)

Planned events for the School of Leadership and Management in Higher Education - five conference and workshop-based events in four different cities with an average of 100 participants and ten speakers each.

Executed activities to advance the University's internationalization project: facilitated meetings with international delegations, translated and interpreted - English/Portuguese, and managed support staff.

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCES

Elizabeth Shakman Hurd, Professor of Political Science and Religious Studies
Department of Political Science, Northwestern University
eshurd@northwestern.edu

Ian Hurd, Professor of Political Science
Department of Political Science, Northwestern University
ianhurd@northwestern.edu

Naeem Inayatullah, Professor of Politics
Department of Politics, Ithaca College
naeem@ithaca.edu

Mary Dietz, John Evans Professor of Political Science
Department of Political Science, Northwestern University
M-Dietz@northwestern.edu

Stephen Nelson, Associate Professor of Political Science
Department of Political Science, Northwestern University
stephen-nelson@northwestern.edu